

World Heart Beat presents

Our vocalists and Gig Band in concert

27 June, 2026

About the programme

World Heart Beat's Gig Band brings together an outstanding collective of talented young musicians, including pianists, guitarists, bassists, drummers and vocalists, for an evening of inspiring live performance.

Guided by World Heart Beat's exceptional artist-educators, acclaimed vocalist and guitarist Sian Kelly, guitarist Scipio Mosley, and singer-songwriter Ava Joseph, the Gig Band programme provides young musicians with the invaluable experience of rehearsing, collaborating and performing at a professional level. Through expert coaching, creative mentorship and a strong emphasis on musicianship, improvisation and stagecraft, students develop the confidence and skills needed to thrive as contemporary performers.

This concert celebrates the remarkable progress and artistry of these emerging musicians, featuring an exciting programme of solo, duo, trio and full ensemble performances across a vibrant range of contemporary musical styles. It is an opportunity to witness the next generation of performers as they share the results of their dedication, creativity and the outstanding musical education that lies at the heart of World Heart Beat.

ABOUT WORLD HEART BEAT

World Heart Beat is a pioneering music charity and cultural organisation based in London, dedicated to transforming lives through the power of music. Founded by Sahana Gero MBE, we provide inclusive, high-quality music education, performance opportunities, and pathways into the creative industries for young people from all backgrounds, regardless of financial circumstance.

What began in 2012 in a derelict warehouse above a plant hire depot in Wandsworth has grown into one of the UK's most innovative music charities. Today, World Heart Beat delivers more than 10,000 music sessions and over 16,000 hours of tuition each year, alongside a year-round programme of more than 100 public concerts, featuring world class musicians as well as supporting hundreds of young people and artists to learn, create, perform, and thrive.

In 2022, we opened World Heart Beat Embassy Gardens in Nine Elms, transforming a former cultural cold spot into a vibrant hub for music, creativity, and community. Our state-of-the-art concert hall, recording studios, café, and music academy sit at the heart of one of London's largest regeneration projects, bringing together people of all ages, cultures, and backgrounds through exceptional artistic experiences.

At World Heart Beat, music is more than an art form, it is a force for connection, belonging, aspiration, and social mobility. We celebrate the rich cultural heritage of our communities, amplify underrepresented voices, and create opportunities for people to come together, share their stories, and shape brighter futures through music.

Talent is everywhere. Opportunity should be too.

World Heart Beat Music Academy Ltd. is a registered charity in England & Wales.

SUPPORT US

As a charity, support from trusts, foundations, liveries, individuals and businesses is a vital cornerstone of our work.

World Heart Beat became part of Arts Council England's National Portfolio in 2018, recognising the valuable contribution we make to their Creative Case for Diversity and Equality. We are immensely grateful for their support.

However... this is just 4% of our income each year.

World Heart Beat transforms the lives of children and young people, offering an equality of opportunity to all, providing equality of access through the removal of financial barriers to all, and giving a voice to those who are underrepresented. We need your support to give young people a safe place to go after school, studios to be creative in, music education that is world class, opportunities through meaningful work experience, a stage to perform on and a community that believes in them.
