

Celebrant: Tom Irvine with Judith Parts

World Heart Beat Concert Hall

4 June 2026

Celebrant's unique blend of indie-folk song-writing and classical composition builds a stark and vivid world. Led by Scottish songwriter and composer Tom Irvine, the songs wrap intricate arrangements around a strong emotional core, exploring themes of nostalgia, existentialism, displacement, transformation and hope, and the concept of 'home' in the midst of change.

Irvine's roots in the Scottish countryside are deeply embedded in this sense of nostalgia: the depth and infinity of the trees, the quiet expanse of nature.

It's a feeling that often returns to him – caught between the wild, rugged beauty of his homeland and the comfort he has found in Denmark.

Judith Parts is an artist, music producer, violinist and a singer from Estonia, based in Copenhagen. In her music she weaves together acoustic elements, electronic textures, and field recordings to craft a unique sonic landscape where pop and experimental music blend into each other.

ABOUT WORLD HEART BEAT

World Heart Beat is a community where music makes a difference. Founded by Sahana Gero, MBE in 2009 it comprises a music academy, concert hall, recording studios, and café.

As a cultural destination, World Heart Beat at Embassy Gardens bridges cultures and generations through music, celebrating global diversity while providing a platform for great and emerging artists as well as uplifting humanity. We foster musical innovation, global collaboration, and hands-on learning in live sound and audio production, and opening doors for young people in the music industry.

OUR CHARITY

The charity's music academy began with just 70 students being taught in a converted warehouse space at Kimber Road in Southfields, Wandsworth. Bursting at the seams with over 320 students, we are delighted to now have a second music education centre in Embassy Gardens, Nine Elms, Battersea.

World Heart Beat transforms the lives of children and young people, offering an equality of opportunity to all, providing equality of access through the removal of financial barriers to all, and giving a voice to those who are underrepresented. We need your support to ensure opportunities for more young people to access music education, and gain confidence and skills.

"I'm in absolute awe of what you have built, as a space and a charity – it is incredibly inspiring"
- Cyril Ibrahim, World Heart Beat Artist in Residence
