Arts about Wandsworth

The 51st state band is probably the largest band in London. We've proved, over several years, that playing in a band is the best way for musicians to make fast progress. When we started this band, in 2000 we always had a dream of having 100 young musicians, and we are now delighted to announce that we have transcended this goal. This year we are featuring a beautiful trombone section - all of these trombonists have been playing for a short time and are a fantastic example of just how quickly progress can be made in the band. We are also featuring our NEW French Horn section and hope that by next year a tradition of French Horn playing, like the trombones will be well established. The music we play is fun, exciting and often challenging. Our players work really hard, but we think the results are worth it. ! We hope you agree.

the programme:

On Friday the show is presented by Julian Joseph...

Wandsworth's own virtuoso pianist, bandleader, composer, arranger and broadcaster, Julian Joseph is acclaimed by critics and audiences the world over. His passion for music, and his desire to communicate that passion, is utterly compelling. An inspiration to musicians of all ages!

On Saturday the shows are presented by Cory McGee...

Originally from Tampa, Florida, Cory McGee began playing basketball across the UK and Europe in 1996 and became recognised as one of the leading players within European Basketball.

Also on Friday we will be presenting the Jack Petchey Award medallions...

The Jack Petchey Foundation was established by the successful East London entrepreneur, Jack Petchey, in 1999. Now among the largest and most influential London charitable foundations, it focuses on projects and programmes that benefit 11-25 year olds.

Wandsworth Arts Office for support and encouragement and to the National Lottery for supporting new Trombonists and French Horn players. Also to the Youth Opportunities Fund and those at the Tooting Hub for giving these young musicians jazz workshops and to Sir Walter St Johns Educational Charity for our Saxophone project. All those who offered help in any way – thank you for your support.

SAXOPHONES

We're so grateful to Sir Walter St Johns Educational Charity for helping young people who wouldn't otherwise have the chance to play an instrument. Many of the Saxophonists you see here tonight began the saxophone under this project. See how well they play after a just a few months!

French Horn, Trombone – want to play?

This project is continuing thanks to the wonderful support from The National Lottery. Lessons and instruments can be provided as part of the band, so if you are keen to play (or know anyone who might be interested) we can sort it out! Just let us know.
